AV-RATED FIRM

Eisner Gorin LLP is a four-attorney criminal defense boutique. The firm is AV-Rated and has been nationally recognized as a premier Los Angeles criminal law firm for state, juvenile, and federal defense. Eisner Gorin LLP regularly defends misdemeanor and felony charges including DUI, theft, violence, sex crimes, white-collar crimes, and homicide in California courtrooms. The firm intervenes in criminal investigations before formal charges are filed in state and federal court, often causing the accusations to be dropped or reduced before reaching a courtroom. In trial, the firm's success rate is over 98%. The firm's partners have handled over 200 jury trials. The firm also handles litigation after a jury conviction, seeking to overturn to verdicts in the trial court or on appeal. High-profile case successful results include dismissal of white collar crime charges against a television host, reduced sentence in Miss-Teen USA hacking case, acquittal by jury in child abuse trial, striking down of the Anti-Paparazzi law as unconstitutional, and no-jail sentences for numerous defendants accused of possession and/or distribution of unlawful pornography.

Dmitry Gorin

Dmitry Gorin is a firm partner in Eisner Gorin, a boutique state and federal defense practice. Drawing from more than a decade of experience as a Senior Deputy District Attorney for Los Angeles County, Mr. Gorin now specializes in the defense of complex criminal matters in state and federal courts nationwide. Having litigated approximately 100 jury trials, he has successfully defended attorneys, medical professionals, business owners and corporations on misdemeanor and felony charges including white-collar crime, federal violations, drug offenses, violent crimes, juvenile offenses, sex crimes, and drunk driving.

Mr. Gorin has also litigated some of the largest white collar crime and narcotics cases nationally. Many of his publicity cases have been profiled by media outlets such as the Los Angeles Times, Daily News, ABC, NBC, and Court TV. He frequently and successfully intervenes in criminal cases after an arrest to prevent criminal charges from being filed by the prosecutor's office.

For over a decade, Mr. Gorin has served as an Adjunct Professor at Pepperdine University Law School and the UCLA Communications Department. He has been an instructor to undergrads and law students in the areas of courtroom advocacy, pretrial litigation, criminal defense, and federal white collar crime. Mr. Gorin is a 1995 graduate of the UCLA School of Law.

Mr. Gorin is also an active member of the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers, the California Association of Criminal Justice, and several other legal organizations. He regularly instructs other attorneys in the area of criminal defense, and has presented at the Beverly Hills Bar, San Fernando Valley Bar, Santa Monica Bar, State Bar, and Easter European Bar Associations. Dmitry is also frequently asked to serve as a legal expert/analyst for various national and international media outlets and has previously provided commentary on the criminal prosecutions of Phil Spector, Roman Polanski, Dr. Murray, Mel Gibson, Lindsay Lohan, among others.

Meryl Chambers

Meryl Chambers is an Associate at Eisner Gorin LLP, with extensive courtroom experience involving misdemeanor and felony case litigation. She has been devoted to criminal defense for many years. Before finishing law school, Ms. Chambers litigated cases on behalf of juveniles in the delinquency system as a Certified Law Student in Loyola's Center for Juvenile Law & Policy. Ms. Chambers is admitted to the State Bar of California and is a member of the Los Angeles County Bar Association, San Fernando Valley Bar Association, and the Beverly Hills Bar. She has achieved tremendous results for clients, from the simplest misdemeanors to the most complex felonies. Ms. Chambers places a special emphasis on alternative sentencing, rehabilitation, and pre-court defense. She has caused numerous DUI charges to be reduced or dismissed, prevailed with the DMV, and caused numerous diversionary case settlements on misdemeanor offenses (kept the client's record clean without a conviction). Ms. Chambers has diverted criminal charges in cases involving allegations of prostitution, theft, domestic violence, and other serious allegations.

Brad Kaiserman

Mr. Kaiserman regularly appears in both State and Federal courts. He has helped litigate hundreds of cases, obtaining many successful resolutions for his clients accused of misdemeanor and felony offenses. He also handles appellate work and has argued before the Second District Court of Appeal. He is a member of both the California Attorneys for Criminal Justice (CACJ) and the San Fernando Valley Bar Association (SFVBA). Mr. Kaiserman received a Bachelor's Degree from U.C. Berkeley, and a Juris Doctor from USC School of Law. He specializes in Motion and Appellate work, and has assisted the firm's partners in causing numerous felony and misdemeanor cases to be dismissed both at the preliminary hearing and trial court levels.
